

4-2-2009 and the petitioner was relieved from his work on 29-1-2009. Even after the dispute raised before the Labour Conciliation Officer, Karaikal, the respondent management still gave its consent to give appointment to the petitioner at Yanam Unit. Therefore it is evident that there is no denial of work on the part of the respondent management. In view of the admissions made by the petitioner himself that he has not been refused work and he was offered work at Yanam which he denied. This court is of opinion that the averments found in the petition are falsified by Ex.R1.

In view of the above discussion, point No. 1 is answered to the effect that the petitioner was not prevented from doing his work as averred by him.

In view of the above findings, point No. 2 is answered to the effect that the petitioner was transferred to work at Yanam factory as averred by the respondent management.

8. Point No. 3 :

In view of the findings in point No. 2, the petitioner himself has failed to report before the main office at the respondent management at Yanam and he absented himself from his duty. In such a circumstance, the petitioner is not entitled for an order of reinstatement as prayed by him. In view of the above discussion, point No. 3 is answered to the effect that the dispute raised by the petitioner over his non-employment is not justified.

9. Point No.4:

In view of the findings in issue No. 3, this issue is decided to the effect that the petitioner is not entitled for the relief as prayed by him.

In the result, the industrial dispute is dismissed.
